2. I Peter<sup>2</sup> AESCHLIMANN (Hans<sup>1</sup>) was born May 22, 1798 in Grandval, SWITZERLAND, and died October 08, 1855 in Fulton Co., Ohio. He married Catherine "Katie" GEARIG (GUERICK) August 25, 1815 in Schlatthof, Gemeinde Parrish, Bishopric of Basel, SWITZERLAND. She was born June 24, 1794 in Stelt of Court, Basel, SWITZERLAND, and died November 16, 1847 in Fulton Co., Ohio.

Notes for I Peter AESCHLIMANN:

Peter Aeschlimann immigrated to America in 1834, sailing from France and eventually settled in Wayne Co., OH. No source indicates if his three sons immigrated at this time. Christian would have been 18. The motivation for immigration may have been to avoid compulsory military service, a common reason for immigration among European Mennonites at this time. Some sources say Peter's wife Katie died in Switzerland before Peter came to America, but in the Aeschliman family Bible, Christian records, "In the year of our Lord 1847 on Nov 16, my mother died". Further data unavailable. Peter and Catherine were married on a farm called Schlatthof in the Gemeinde Parrish, Switz. Source: Delbert Gratz.

The Aeschliman Cem. is located one mile south of Pettisville, on the north side of CR C, between TR 18 and CR 19. (SW1/4, SE1/4, Sec 31, T7N, R6E.) HISTORY: The cemetery is located along the old Archbold-West Barre Road on land deeded to Peter Aeschliman in 1841. In 1874 acreage was deeded to the trustees of the Mennonite Church to be used as burial ground. [FCC]

He married Verena "Fannie" FREY April 28, 1842 in Milton Twp, Wayne Co., OH. She was born May 11, 1824 in Montprevoir, Neuvier, Dept. Doubs, FRANCE, and died September 02, 1908 in Archbold, Fulton Co., Ohio.

Notes for Christian AESCHLIMAN:

"After the Aeschlimann family came to America for awhile they lived in Wayne County, Ohio, and eventually entered a tract of government land in German township, Fulton County. It was all in timber and the surroundings were wild. There was an old log cabin on the place, and it evidently had been used as a stable. It was in that hut Christian Aeschliman and his wife had to make their abode for awhile. He was a typical pioneer, and resolutely applied himself to the great task of clearing his property of timber. Eventually he owned 160 acres, most of which was cleared, and upon which he erected adequate out-buildings, and a commodious, comfortable residence". Land was cleared, buildings constructed and the country developed through the cooperative helpfulness among neighbors. Chris was a good carpenter and builder. He gained renown as a barn framer and barn raiser. The only blueprint was in his head. Trees from land in the area were used. The logs were not sawed in these early years, but were hewed by hand, using a broad axe and adz. Other basic tools were a couple of chisels (a mortise chisel and a corner chisel), some mauls, mallets, beetles (a beetle was a heavy mallet weighing about 40 pounds especially built and strengthened with iron hoops around the large pounding end) and a small auger for boring holes to insert wooden pins which were used instead of nails to fasten the framed timbers together. Depending on which part of the barn they were used, the girders or beams were 4"x4" or larger, some six to nine inches thick. The main girder, about twelve to eighteen inches thick, was usually the heart of the barn. The four or five framed or braced sections (also called bents) for the side walls were fashioned by the framer on the ground in preparation for raising day. These sections were sturdy and very heavy for a two-story barn. When it came time to raise these sides onto the foundation, neighbors for miles around (perhaps one hundred to two hundred men) were invited to a barn raising. They brought their own pike poles which were about 16 feet long. The poles had pike pins on one end to keep the frame, or bent, from slipping. On command, all the men would push the section up with these pike poles. The barn raiser stood on the walls, or framework, and rode up on them while they were being pushed up into place. A barn raising was an event looked forward to. Families came--the men raised the barn, the women prepared the food, the children played. Hard work? Of course. But a gathering for work, fellowship and fun. Chris built bank barns, two stories tall, about 60 to 80 feet long and 35 to 40 feet wide with an A-shaped roof. There was a lean-to roof on one end of the barn. Its purpose was primarily to shelter a team of horses and a wagon-load of ear corn or other grain in the event of rain. The roof also provided shelter for other horse-drawn equipment. Cows, horses, and other livestock were sheltered on the ground floor below the hay and straw which were stored on second floor. In the center of this top floor, space wide enough for a threshing floor was allowed, with hay and straw stored on each side. The threshing floor also served as a run-way for horse drawn hay wagons. To get the wagon to the second floor, a hill of dirt was banked up on one side of the barn--hence the name, bank barn. This side of the barn was built of stone at least to the top of the bank of dirt. When the hay or straw had been unloaded, the wagon was backed out and down the bank. Often a machine for threshing would be placed on the threshing floor. The grain fell into a hopper, or a grain bagger from which men carried bags of grain to storage bins. Straw and chaff was blown through a pipe which extended out the other side of the barn where a straw stack would be made for livestock. The story is told that one time Chris was building a barn and, for some reason unknown to us now, another man took over. When the walls were all put together on the ground and were ready to raise, the men with their pike poles were all there but simply couldn't get the sides up. Then someone said, "Well, we've got to get old Aeschliman to raise this barn." Chris must have been a stern talker. He gave the men a good talking to and then said, "If I've come to raise this barn, we're going to raise it." Then he stood on the wall and called, "He-e-e-e, Ho-o-o-o He-e-e-v-e" and up it went, set squarely upright in place on the foundation. Christian and Verena A. had 15 children, three of whom died quite young. When the rest were grown, Chris gave each of them $1000. Some perhaps all, invested in land. Joel and Jonathan went to Missouri where land was cheaper and settled there. Leah, Livina, and Elisa also married and settled in Missouri. Emeline and Rebecca never married. Emeline lived with Jonathan and his wife, Mary, until their deaths. Nathaniel, Theophilus and Elias stayed in Ohio, as did Rebecca (Becky), Catharine and Mary.

Co., Ohio. He married Fannie VONIER April 10, 1883 in Wauseon, Fulton Co., Ohio. She was born November 20, 1863 in Etoben, Alsace, FRANCE, and died January 13, 1956 in Wauseon, Fulton Co., Ohio.

Notes for Theophilus (Theophil) AESCHLIMAN:

( Fannie's brother Andrew was married to Theophilus' sister Lavina.) After marriage, Fannie and Theophilus lived in an old log cabin on the Aeschliman farm. It may have been the same log cabin in which his parents lived after buying the property in German Township. After living and working for wages on his parents farm, he and his brother Eli purchased eighty acres, south of Archbold in Fulton County. The brothers farmed together for four years and then dissolved partnership. Theophilus and Fannie went to Missouri intending to buy a farm in Schuyler County, MO, where several of his siblings had settled. They stayed only a few weeks before returning to northwest Ohio and moving to the Aeschliman homestead. They continued living farming there for seven years. Following that they moved to Chesterfield, Ohio and bought a partly improved farm of 100 acres. In the fall of 1906, they sold the farm at a considerable profit, and moved back to Fulton County and bought 82 acres. Theophilus continued the farm management until 1917, when he rented the farm to his son, Benjamin, while they continued to live in the farm home. The book, History of Fulton County, describes Theophilus as a successful farmer and the newspaper obituary describes him as "a citizen of high standing in the community. ...a good neighbor and a true friend."

Aeschliman. -- Theophilus Aeschliman was born near Archbold, Ohio, April 17, 1861; died Nov. 11, 1932; aged 71 y. 6 m. 24 d. On the morning of Nov. 11 he went to Archbold to transact some business, started home, and on Main Street on the New York R. R. tracks his automobile stopped in front of a westbound fast train and was hurled instantly into eternity. He was united in marriage with Fanny Vonier April 10, 1883. They were blessed that they could share the joys and sorrows of life together for nearly a half century. This union was blessed with 2 sons and 3 daughters (Mrs. Aaron Klopfenstein, Mrs. Henry Richer, Mrs. Samuel Richer and Enos Aeschliman of Wauseon, Ohio, and Benjamin Aeschliman of Archbold, Ohio). He leaves his deeply bereaved companion, 5 children, 24 grandchildren, 4 great-grandchildren, 1 brother, 3 sisters, and a host of near relatives and friends. Bro. Aeschliman was of a loving and quiet disposition, loved by all who knew him. "Dearest father, thou hast left us,
And our loss we deeply feel;
But 'tis God that hath bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal."

29. Benedict<sup>4</sup> ASCHLIMAN (John (Johannes)<sup>3</sup>, Peter<sup>2</sup> AESCHLIMANN, Hans<sup>1</sup>) was born August 19, 1858 in near Stryker, Williams Co., Ohio, and died January 27, 1914 in Stryker, Williams Co., Ohio. He married Mary GRABER June 13, 1889 in near Stryker, Williams Co., Ohio. She was born March 27, 1864 in near Stryker, Williams Co., Ohio, and died March 11, 1939 in near Stryker, Williams Co., Ohio.

Notes for Benedict ASCHLIMAN:

ASCHLIMAN. - Benedict, son of John and Barbara Aschliman, was born near Stryker, O., Aug. 19, 1858. On the morning of Jan. 27, 1914, he quietly and peacefully fell asleep in Jesus, at his home and on the farm where he was born. Age, 55y. 5m. 8d. On June 13, 1889, he united in marriage with Mary Graber. They lived together in peace and happiness 24y. 7m. 14d. To this union were born 5 sons, and 2 daughters. The oldest preceded him to the home above 21 years ago. He leaves a deeply sorrowing companion, 4 sons, 2 daughters, a sister, and 4 brothers to mourn the loss of a loving husband, a kind and affectionate father and brother. He accepted Christ as his Savior while yet a young man and united with the Amish Mennonite Church of which he was a faithful member until death. Bro. Aschliman's bodily affliction was cancer of the face, which began about one year ago, and caused much pain and suffering, which was borne with patience. To our mind he was still needed in the home, the neighborhood, and in the Church; but God who knows all things best saw fit to call him home. The Lord's will be done.

Obituary: Gospel Herald, 2/12/1914

Notes for Mary GRABER:

Aschliman.-Mary, daughter of Christian and Catherine (Stuckey) Graber, was born near Stryker, Ohio, March 27, 1864; died March 11, 1939, in full assurance and faith in the Saviour's love. June 13, 1889, she was united in marriage to Benedict Aschliman. This union was blessed with 7 children: Sylvanus, Raymond, Ura, Cletus, Freeman, (Freda) Mrs. Alphus Rufenacht and (Virgie) Mrs. John L. Short.

Death entered this home for the first time some 47 years ago, when Sylvanus, a child of 2 years, was called home; and again about 25 years ago when the husband and father was called to lay down his earthly toil and cares and go to meet his Lord and Saviour. In early life Mother accepted Christ as her Saviour, united with the Mennonite Church, remaining faithful unto the end. When health permitted, her seat in the church was never vacant, and just one short week ago was in her accustomed place. The family keenly feels the loss of a devoted and loving mother, especially Raymond and Ura who so tenderly cared for their loving mother. She leaves, besides her children, 11 grandchildren, 2 brothers, and 4 sisters who also will sadly miss her. Two grandchildren preceded her in death. Funeral services were held at the Lockport A. M. church March 15, by Bro. Simon Stuckey at the home and Bros. E. B. Frey and P. L. Frey at the church. Texts, II Cor. 5:1 and Rev. 14:13. Burial in adjoining cemetery.

"The children's hearts are lonely now,

Since mother's gone to rest.

But we our hearts do humbly bow,

And say, God tho't it best."

My dad tells what he heard of Ura's experience during the war. He suffered constat ridicule for his conscientious stand. At one point some of the soldiers were threatening to hang him. He carried the rope marks on his neck for a long time. John Aeschliman as told to his daughter

Smucker - Magdalena, daughter of Samuel and Katherine Yoder, was born in Wayne Co., Ohio, April 15, 1853; died Feb. 11, 1935; aged 81 y. 9 m. 26 d. She was united in marriage to Amos Smucker on Jan. 23, 1873. To this union were born 3 sons and 2 daughters - Amandus, Katherine, and Mrs. David Rohrer of Orrville; William of Smithville. Father and 1 son (Merle) preceded her in death. She is survived by 2 sons, 2 daughters, 7 grandchildren, 1 brother (John A. Yoder) of Smithville, and many other near relatives and friends. Sister Smucker in her youth accepted Christ as her personal Savior, united with the Oak Grove Mennonite Church, where she worshiped and served her Lord for many years. She was a faithful and devoted sister, active in the Master's work. In her quiet and gentle way she gave a helping hand to advance the cause of Christ and the Church. When the years came that through the infirmities of age she could no longer attend public worship, she still found much comfort in the precious promises of God. She was a kind, loving and sympathetic mother, and leaves to her children and grandchildren, and also to the community and Church, the memory of a beautiful Christian life. In the twilight of evening, as the day was drawing to a close, she peacefully fell asleep in Jesus. Notes for Veronica "Frona" SMUCKER:

Yoder."Frona, daughter of Jonathan and Catherine Smucker, was born in Wayne Co., Ohio, June 20, 1885; died at her home near West Liberty, Ohio, Oct. 10, 1924; aged 69 y. 3 m. 20 d. She was married to Rudolph Yoder, Feb. 6, 1879. They lived together happily forty-five years. This union was blessed with four children: Mrs. Arthur Hartzler, Mrs. John I. Yoder, J. Archie Yoder; an infant son preceded her to the spirit world in December, 1884. She confessed Christ in her youth, and united with the Mennonite Church, and remained a faithful member until the end. She possessed an affectionate disposition, which won for her many friends. On Aug. 23, she with her husband and granddaughter, Mary Vaughn, started on a trip to Wayne County to visit relatives, but before reaching their destination, the hand of affliction was laid upon her, and she soon became speechless, and later unconscious, in which condition she remained until the summons came to "Come up higher." She leaves a grief-stricken husband, two daughters, one son, fourteen grandchildren, two brothers, and one sister. One brother and one sister preceded her in death. Funeral services were held at South Union Church, in charge of Bros. S. E. Allgyer and A. I. Yoder.

Notes for Rudolph S. YODER:

Yoder.-Rudolph S. Yoder was born Feb. 28, 1856, near West Liberty, Ohio, and in this vicinity he spent his entire life. He was the son of Jonathan and Ann Yoder, and of that family of 7 children, there now remains 1 sister, Mrs. Abner Kauffman. On Feb. 6, 1878, he was united in marriage to Frona Smucker of Smithville, Ohio, and in whose companionship he was privileged to live and enjoy for forty-five years. To this union were born 4 children (Mrs. Arthur Hartzler, Mrs. John I. Yoder, J. Arch Yoder and a son who died in infancy). His home was a very happy one and God blessed it in many ways. Many fond memories of it will be cherished by the children, more and more as the years go by and many pleasant hours spent together will be fondly remembered by the grandchildren, of whom there are 15. In youth he united with the South Union Mennonite Church, in which faith he remained faithful all through the years. He will be missed in his accustomed place there, where he enjoyed coming as long as health permitted. His greatest sorrow came when his devoted companion was taken from him on Oct. 10, 1924; and though he enjoyed very much the frequent visits of his children, of his grandchildren, and his friends, and though he was so lovingly and tenderly cared for by his family and very faithful housekeeper, Margaret Plank, during all his illness, yet the heavenly home above held more attraction for him than his earthly home here below. When he realized that the days of his life were few, he was glad that God would have it so. At the age of nearly seventy-five, quietly, peacefully, before the break of day, he passed away Jan. 21, 1931. Funeral services held at the South Union Church conducted by S. E. Allgyer and A. I. Yoder. Obituary: Gospel Herald, 2/19/1931

On Jan. 19, 1882, he was united in marriage with Elizabeth Aeschliman. Four foster children were taken into the home (Frank Cornell, Amos Aschliman, Mrs. Simeon Leupp of Wauseon, O., and Mrs. Ella Yoder) whom he esteemed very much. On April 3, 1917 he was again united in marriage with Caroline Beck. To this union were born 4 daughters (Mrs. Charles Bechtol, Ada, Cora, and Lucinda). He leaves his companion, 4 daughters, 7 foster grandchildren, 4 foster great-grandchildren; a sister (Mrs. Eli Lantz of Berne, Ind.), a brother (Seth Rupp of Archbold), besides a host of relatives and friends. One daughter (Cora) and a foster son preceded him in death. In his youth he accepted Christ as his personal Saviour and united with the Defenseless Mennonite Church and was called to the work of the Lord as a minister; later he transferred his membership to the Amish Mennonite Church and there served as a minister as long as health permitted. About three years ago he began failing in health and from that time on he was not able to fill his place. On Saturday he suffered a heart attack, and bore it patiently until the Lord called him home. He was a kind and loving Father and will be missed in the home, and the church where he labored. Funeral services were held at the Central Church Jan. 20, conducted by Jesse Short, assisted by E. B. Frey. Text, Phil. 1:21.

"We have lost a loving father,
He has bid us all adieu;

He has gone to live in Heaven

And his form is lost in view."

His parents moved to Medina Co., Ohio, in a wagon when he was five weeks old. There he grew to manhood. He was the oldest of a family of eleven children, only two of whom survive him (Mrs. Abe Rohrer of Wadsworth, Ohio, and Mrs. Rome Kindig of Cleveland, Ohio). She lived a quiet, peaceful life, always concerned for the spiritual welfare of her family.

Although we do not understand,

The Lord knows what is best.

He led her by His loving hand

To her eternal, happy rest. Obituary: Gospel Herald, 9/9/1943

A voice we loved is stilled,

The place is vacant in our home

Which never can be filled."Obituary: Gospel Herald, 4/9/1931

Notes for Leah SHORT:

RUFENACHT– Leah Rufenacht (nee Short), wife of Joel Rufenacht (deceased), was born near Archbold, O., Apr. 18, 1866; passed away at her home in Archbold, O., Oct. 12, 1935, several hours after taking a paralytic stroke; aged 69 y. 5 m. 24 d. Her companion preceded her in death 5 months and 13 days. Mar. 8, 1887, she was united in marriage with Joel Rufenacht. To this union were born 4 sons and 3 daughters. In passing she leaves her children (Aaron, Dale, Mrs. Charlie Nafziger, Mrs. M. A. Farber of Archbold, Ohio; Alpheus of Waldron, Mich.; Floyd and Mrs. E. A. Randolph of Toledo, Ohio), 15 grandchildren, 3 brothers, 7 sisters, and a host of relatives and friends. Her husband, parents, 1 brother and 1 sister preceded her in death. About seven years ago she had her first stroke, from which she never fully recovered, leaving her partly an invalid the remaining years of her life. But through all her afflictions and grief she bore it patiently, ever trying to be resigned to the will of her God. Since the death of father she often expressed her desire to leave this world and be with her companion in glory. In her younger years she accepted Christ as her Savior and united with the Mennonite Church, remaining true to her faith until death. On Oct. 15, at the Lockport Church her funeral was held, in charge of S. D. Grieser, assisted by Ed B. Frey. Text, Rev. 14:13. Burial in adjoining cemetery.

"A loving mother so gentle and kind,
 What a wonderful memory she left behind;
 Long days she patiently bore in pain,
 To wait for relief, but all in vain,
 Till God Himself knew what was best—
 He took her home and gave her rest." Obituary: Gospel Herald, 10/31/1935

Klopfenstein, -- Jemima, daughter of Theophilus and Fannie (Vonier) Aeschliman, was born near Archbold, Ohio, March 8, 1884; departed this life Jan. 20, 1955, at her home in Wauseon, Ohio; aged 70 y. 10 m. 18 d. On Dec. 31, 1903, she was united in marriage to Aaron Klopfenstein. Her companion preceded her on March 22, 1934. Six children came to bless their home (Francis-Mrs. Harley Beck, Archbold, Ohio; Arthur and Mabel-Mrs. Dennis Struckey, Wauseon; Ellen-Mrs. Raymon Aschliman, Stryker; Roy, Wauseon; and Doris at home). She was preceded in death by her father, her companion, and 4 grandchildren. Surviving are the 6 children, her aged mother, 2 brothers (Ben, Archbold; Enos, Wauseon), 2 sisters (Mary-Mrs. Henry Richer, and Lucinda-Mrs. Sam Richer, both of Wauseon), 19 grandchildren, 4 great-grandchildren, and a large number of other relatives and friends.

She and her husband became Christians several years after their marriage and became members of the Mennonite Church. She was a faithful member of the West Clinton congregation and served her Lord in a meek and quiet spirit. On Sept. 6, 1954, she first became afflicted after suffering a stroke, but improved for a time and was able to be about her home again. Later, after several more strokes, she gradually became worse until the Lord took her home to Himself. Funeral services were held at the West Clinton Church with D. L. Sommers and E. B. Frey officiating. Burial was made in the Pettisville Cemetery.

On Dec. 31, 1903, he was united in marriage to Jemina Aschliman, with whom he shared the joys and sorrows of life for a little over 30 years. This union was blessed with 2 sons and 4 daughters. His health began to fail over two years ago, finally resulting in mucous colitis and emboli of the brain, which at times gave him intense pain and suffering, but he always tried his best to endure it patiently. He leaves his sorrowing widow, 2 sons (Arthur and Roy of Wauseon, Ohio), 4 daughters (Frances, wife of Harley Beck of Archbold, Ohio; Mabel, wife of Lloyd Gisel of Wauseon, Ohio; Ellen and Doris at home), 6 grandchildren, his aged mother (who is very feeble), 2 brothers, 2 sisters, and a large circle of near relatives and friends. His father and one grandchild preceded him in death. Twenty-seven years ago Bro. Klopfenstein and wife confessed Christ as their personal Savior and united with the Mennonite Church, in which faith he died. Funeral services were held Mar. 25 at the home by S. D. Grieser, and at the Central Mennonite Church, in charge of S. S. Wyse, assisted by Henry Rychener. Text, Jno. 11:23-26. Interment in Pettisville cemetery.

"His willing hands will toil for us no more;

His voice is still.

Fond hopes are shattered, hearts are sore,

Yet, 'twas God's will.

God called dear father home to rest-

Away from pain and care.

Some day, oh happy time, 'twill not be long,

We'll meet him there."

One sister, two brothers, and four grandchildren preceded her in death. She was converted and united with the Mennonite Church at the age of 15 and remained a faithful member until death. She was of a quiet and unassuming disposition, a loving companion, a kind mother, and was loved and respected by all who knew her. During her sickness she never complained, but bore her suffering patiently and expressed her readiness to go and be with the Lord.

"Oh, how hard to part with Mother
She who loved with us to dwell,
And there is on earth no other,
Who can sympathize so well."

205. Mary<sup>5</sup> BURKHOLDER (Barbara<sup>4</sup> GRIESER, Mary (Anna Maria)<sup>3</sup> AESCHLIMAN, Peter<sup>2</sup> AESCHLIMANN, Hans<sup>1</sup>) was born January 29, 1869 in near Archbold, Fulton Co., Ohio, and died June 04, 1933 in near Pettisville, Fulton Co., Ohio. She married Jacob C. FREY October 17, 1889. He was born September 12, 1865 in near Pettisville, Fulton Co., Ohio, and died August 18, 1944 in Archbold, Fulton Co., Ohio.

Notes for Mary BURKHOLDER:

Frey - Mary (Burkholder) Frey was born near Archbold, Ohio, Jan. 29, 1869; died at her home near Pettisville, Ohio, June 4, 1933; aged 64 y. 4 m. 5 d. She was united in marriage with Jacob C. Frey, Oct. 17, 1889. Fifteen children were born to this union, of whom 5 sons and 5 daughters are still living: Noah E., Edward B., Simon P., Harvey B., Ora J., Amanda, Emma, Minnie, Pearl, Bessie. There are also 34 grandchildren surviving. Two have preceded her in death. She was the second child of a family of ten children, of which Daniel A., David W., Peter C., Noah C., Amos, and Katie Kauffman survive. Elizabeth, Caroline, and Leah preceded her in death. Eleven years ago last January Sister Mary had a stroke, from which she recovered sufficiently to go about her household duties. Three years ago a second stroke befell her, which crippled her somewhat, but she was still able to help in light housework. In November, 1932, she had coronary thrombosis which left her heart crippled and she gradually declined until death relieved her of her suffering. She united with the A.M. Church in her youth and remained true to her Savior until death. She was much devoted to her family, and would deny herself of the ordinary pleasures and comforts of life for her husband and children. The marks of a virtuous woman were hers. She did not eat the bread of idleness. Funeral services were held at the Central A.M. Church in charge of D.A. Yoder of Elkhart, Ind., assisted by Silas Weldy of Wakarusa, Ind. Interment in Pettisville Cemetery.

Notes for Jacob C. FREY:

Jacob's father died when he was just a little over four years old. [FA]

Frey.-Jacob. C., son of Christian and Elizabeth (Conrad) Frey, was born near Pettisville, Ohio, Sept. 12, 1865; passed away at his home in Archbold, Ohio, Aug. 18, 1944; aged 78 y. 11 m. 6 d. On Oct. 17, 1889, he was united in marriage to Mary Burkholder, who preceded him in death June 4, 1933. This home was blessed with 15 children, of whom 5 sons (Noah E., Edward B., Simon P., Harvey B., and Ora J.) and 5 daughters (Amanda, Emma-Mrs. J. C. Liechty, Minnie-Mrs. Lloyd Miller, Pearl-Mrs. Sylvan Rupp, and Bessie-Mrs. Chas. Miller) remain, all residing in this community. He is also survived by 49 grandchildren, 6 great-grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends. Besides his companion, there preceded him in death, 5 infant children, 6 grandchildren, and one great-grandchild. He was the last of a family of 6 children to answer the call of death. His father died when he was about four years of age. After his brothers and sisters established homes of their own, he continued to live on the old homestead (where his mother also lived) until 1907, when he moved on his own farm three miles south of Pettisville. He lived there until 1938, when he and his daughter Amanda moved to Archbold, where they lived together until his death. About four years ago his health began to fail, due to heart ailment, which at times caused his considerable suffering and confined him to his home for about six weeks preceding his death. He bore his sufferings patiently, and frequently expressed his desire to depart to be with the Lord. As a young man he accepted Christ as his Saviour and united with the Mennonite Church near Archbold, where he continued in fellowship and service until the end. In 1910, he was ordained to the office of deacon, which place he faithfully filled as long as health permitted. He was always greatly concerned for the present and future welfare of his family, the congregation, and the church at large. His counsel and advice were sought by many. Besides his local responsibilities, he was active in the interests of the church at large, and on a number of occasions made extensive visits in the congregation of the United States and Canada. In World War 1 he was actively engaged in the interests of our young men of draft age, especially those who were taken into the camps. He served as treasurer of the General Conference for 20 years, of the Peace Problems Committee, 15 years, and of the Ohio District Conference, 13 years. In all his labors he had a keen sense of responsibility, and pursued them energetically and zealous, laying them down only when age and health demanded it. His fellowship, counsel, and warnings will be long and favorably remembered by his family and by many throughout the church. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Central Mennonite Church, conducted by Bro. D. A. Yoder, Elkhart, Ind., and the home ministers. Text, Rev. 2:10. Burial was made in the Pettisville Cemetery.

Schlegel.-Harry R., son of John M. and Anna Schlegel, was born at Milford, Nebr., July 2, 1901; passed away at the General Hospital, Albany, Oreg.; Aug. 12, 1944, following a brief illness; aged 43 y. 1 m. 10 d. On Dec. 24, 1922, he was united in marriage to Mabel Neuenschwander, who survives him. He is also survived by 3 sons and 2 daughters (Bobby, Richard, James, Barbara, and Mary), his father, 2 brothers (John R. and Homer, of Albany), and 4 sisters (Mrs. Sadie Reeser, Van Nuys, Calif.); Mrs. Mary Roth, Mrs. Ada Reeser, and Mrs. Anna Heyerly, of Albany). He was preceded in death by one son (Leonard), his mother, 2 brothers, and one sister. In his youth he united with the Mennonite Church and remained a faithful, consistent member until death, being active in all church activities. He always had a cheery smile for everyone whom he met, and was loved by all who knew him. Funeral services were conducted Aug. 15 at the Albany Mennonite Church, by Bros. George K. Kauffman and M. E. Brenneman. Text, 1 Sam. 20:18b

1918 THREE KILLED

Three Victims of Accident are Perry Nofziger, Alma Grieser and Eve Burkholder

Five Cousins Victims of Auto Accident at Archbold Sunday that Proves Fatal to Three - Perry Nofziger, Alma Grieser, Eva Burkholder. One of: the most shocking accidents of recent years in Fulton county was that which occurred last Sunday night on the Main street crossing of the New York Central railway in Archbold. Five young people; all cousins, were returning to their homes in a Ford automobile after having spent the day with an uncle, Mr. Peter Burkholder in Archbold. They were driving north through Archbold and at the New York Central crossing were compelled to stop to allow an east bound freight train to pass. Witnesses state that it was between 8:30 and 9:15 when the accident occurred and the gateman was not on duty; it is also stated by some that an automobile preceded the one in which the young people were riding and crossed the tracks immediately after the freight train had passed. The auto in which the young people were riding followed the first auto, but the step on the engine of the second section of fast passenger train No. 48, west bound, caught the rear end of their auto, carrying it about 100 feet, killing the three occupants of the rear seat and injuring the occupants of the front seat. The dead are: Perry Nofziger, son of Mrs. Eli Nofziger, instantly killed, body badly mangled; Alma *Gireser, 22; daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Grieser, instantly killed; body, . torn and: broken; Eve Burkholder, 22, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Burkholder .of Pettisville, injured so badly that she was unconscious and died about, an hour after the accident occurred in the office of Dr. I. L. Coy. The occupants of the front seat, who escaped with their lives, were: Harvey Grieser, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan *Grisier, who sustained bruises on the head. and body, but was able to walk about, and Bertha Burkholder, 20, daughter of. Mr. and Mrs. David Burkholder, sister of Eve Burkholder, who was killed, who suffered a severe shock, but sustained no visible injuries. The dead and injured were taken to the nearby office of Dr. I. L. Coy, from which place the dead were; taken to the undertaking rooms. The deepest sympathy is felt by the entire countryside for the families into which death has come in a sudden and shocking manner.

ENGAGED COUPLE BURIED SIDE BY SIDE

Three Victims of Accident are Perry Nofziger, Alma Grieser and Eve Burkholder
Funeral of Three Victims of Accident Held At Same Time and Burial In the Same Cemetery

Probably the largest number of persons that ever attended a burial in this county assembled at the Eckley cemetery Wednesday, April 10th, to inter the bodies of the three young people who were so suddenly snatched from life to death in the crossing accident in Archbold, Sunday evening, April 7th.

The funerals of the three victims of cruel fate were held at the three separate homes of their parents at 10:00 a.m. after which the three corteges met-at the cemetery at one time where the three bodies were viewed by all who wished; before they were laid side by side in their final resting places. The funeral of Perry Nofziger, 28, was held at the home of his mother Mrs. Eli Nofziger, north of Pettisville. The funeral of Alma Grieser, 22, was held *ot the home of her parents Mr. And Mrs. Simon Grieser north of Archbold. The funeral of Eve Burkholder, 22, was held at the home of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Burkholder south of Pettisville. The body of Alma Grieser presented a most pitiful appearance; more especially as the body of promised husband Perry Nofziger lay in a coffin beside her. Instead of a happy wedding the couple were dead and mourned instead of *congratnlated by their friends. Their bodies were placed in adjoining graves to be near each other in eternal repose. By ministers of the Amish-Mennonite congregations. There are no words to convey the great sympathy which the people of this vicinity feel for the relatives and friends of the departed. The sorrows of the community are small indeed in comparison with the grief of those nearer and dearer to the loved ones that have gone before.

THREE YOUNG PEOPLE KILLED TWO STRANGELY ESCAPED DEATH (1918)

Five in Auto Struck By Fast Passenger Train At Archbold Main Street Crossing, Sunday Evening -Two Killed Instantly; One Died Shortly

The dead:

PERRY NOFZIGER, 28, son of Mrs. Eli Nofziger of Archbold, Instantly killed. Body badly mangled.

ALMA GRIESER, 22, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Grieser. Killed instantly. Body torn and broken.

EVE BURKHOLDER, 22, daughter Mr. and Mrs. David Burkholder of Pettisville. Injured so badly that she was unconscious and died in the office of Dr. I. L. Coy, at 9:40. About an hour after the accident.

The injured:

HARVEY GRIESER, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Grieser, bruises on head and body. Able to walk about. BERTHA BURKHOLDER, 20, DAUGHTER OF Mr. and Mrs. David Burkholder and sister of the dead girl, badly shocked, but with no visible injuries. At 8:30 Sunday evening five young people were in Perry Nofziger's Ford. They were going north and had stopped at the N. Y. C. crossing in Archbold to allow an east-bound freight to pass. When the freight, had passed they drove across the track, in spite of the warnings of bystanders, as it was past the watch man's hours. They drove upon the other track at just the right time to be struck by the west-bound second section of fast passenger train No.43.

The: locomotive struck the rear of the auto carrying it about 100 ft., The three were crushed and. killed while the two in the front seat escaped death. The passenger train stopped and the crew did, what they could to help. The dead and injured were taken to the nearby office of Dr. I. L. Coy, from which place the bodies of the dead were removed and given over to the undertakers. The cousins had been spending Sunday at the home of their uncle Mr. Peter Burkholder in Archbold They were on their way to their homes when the accident *occured. Upon examination of the auto in which the three in the rear seat met death on the crossing in Archbold, Sunday evening, it is easy to see that the three in the rear seat were scooped out of the machine and carried along and crushed by the cylinder heads and wheels of the locomotive while those in the in the *seas were left in the machine because the front of the auto was stopped by the coming in contact with the shanty of the watchman.

What did you do when the darkness fell

And you knew that your day was done?

I raised my eyes to the Hills – the Hills

Where they have no need of the sun.

And what, when the last face wavered

and blurred And you stood in the night alone?

A loved Voice whispered, Whispered

my name, And a warm Hand covered my own.

And what, when you came to the dark stream's edge In the wake of the death bitter strife?

He carried me lovingly through

And into the land of Life.

accepted Christ as her Saviour and became a member of the Mennonite Church and remained faithful to the end. During her affliction, the continual exercise of her faith and trust in God caused it to become strong and unshaken and enabled her to give many touching and helpful admonitions to her family and acquaintances. She was a devoted wife and a kind and loving mother and will be greatly missed in the home and community. There remains to mourn her departure, her husband, 2 sons, a daughter, 4 grandchildren, 2 brothers, 4 sisters, and many other relatives and friends. Funeral services were held at the home by Bro. Henry Wyse and at the Central Mennonite Church by Bros. P.L. Frey and E.B. Frey. Burial in Pettisville Cemetery.

A loving mother, so gentle and kind,
What a wonderful memory she left behind.
Long days, long nights she bore in patience,
Until God Himself, knowing what was best,
Took her home and gave her eternal rest. Obituary: Gospel Herald, 6/10/1943

214. Samuel D.<sup>5</sup> GRIESER (Christian J.<sup>4</sup>, Mary (Anna Maria)<sup>3</sup> AESCHLIMAN, Peter<sup>2</sup> AESCHLIMANN, Hans<sup>1</sup>) was born June 10, 1874 in near Archbold, Fulton Co., Ohio, and died March 02, 1938 in Wauseon Memorial Hospital, Wauseon, Fulton Co., Ohio. He married Emma STUTZMAN November 04, 1894. She was born August 08, 1872 in Fulton Co., Ohio, and died November 02, 1919.

Notes for Samuel D. GRIESER:

Grieser - Samuel D., son of Christian and Veronica Grieser, was born near Archbold, O. June 10, 1874; died at the Memorial Hospital, Wauseon, O., Mar. 2, 1938; aged 63 y. 8 m. 20 d. On Nov. 4, 1894, he was united in marriage to Emma Stutzman. They shared the joys and sorrows of life together until Nov. 2, 1919, when God called her home. This union was blessed with 7 children. He leaves 2 sons (Ira and Lawrence), 3 daughters (Bertha, Mrs. Joseph Gunden, Archbold, O.; Mrs. William Gunden of Bay Port, Mich.), 18 grandchildren, 4 brothers, 2 sisters, and a host of relatives and friends. There preceded him in death, his companion, 1 daughter (who died in infancy) 1 son, 3 grandchildren, father, mother, and 1 sister. He united with the Mennonite Church at the age of 19 and was ordained to the ministry May 10, 1919, where he faithfully labored for the cause of Christ and the Church. We feel our loss, but our loss is his eternal gain. His death was due to a heart attack which took place after an appendicitis operation.

"Dearest father, thou hast left us.

For that home beyond the skies;

But we long again to meet thee

In the realms of Paradise.

The call was sudden, the shock severe,

We little thought his death was near,

And only those who've lost can tell

The pain of a passing without farewell."

Funeral services were conducted at the Central Mennonite Church by Bros. Jesse Short and E.B.
